Our tūpuna were gentle,
respectful and loving

Where's Your Village, Whānau?

Tūpuna Parenting for Whānau Today

The Why from Whānau

"I have been delighted by being taken back to my kids and looking at them just seeing tapu and mana shining through them."

"This is still very new to me in every way possible but learning about mana and tapu and how my kids are those helps me feel closer to maori core values."

"...if I see them as tapu and as a treasure, why would I want to harm them."

Tūpuna Parenting Movement

Reclaiming our whakapapa to raise our pēpi and tamariki gently and respectfully, like our tūpuna did.

What Kind Of Tūpuna Are We Becoming?

A woman with short brown hair, wearing a red and black striped shirt and a pink scarf, is holding a baby. The baby is wearing a white hat with purple patterns and yellow sleeves. The background is a blurred indoor setting.

Nā ngā ringa aroha, nā te ngākau atawhai, ka ora ai te whānau.

From loving hands, from a gentle heart, comes life for the whānau.
